WHAT PLANET ARE YOU ON, RISHI?

By SIMON DEAN

IDIOT Prime Minister Rishi Sunak has been accused of "taking the piss" after a new Government WhatsApp channel was launched with an excruciating town crier video.

Ministers announced the new WhatsApp channel with the aim of sending the "latest news, updates, and helpful information" to the public via the app.

They marked the launch with a video of London town crier Alan Myatt shouting "UK Government now on WhatsApp."

But the PR stunt went down like a lead balloon with fed-up Brits.

Cam: we have sent Houthis clear message

LORD Cameron says the UK joining allied strikes against Houthi targets was designed to "send the clearest possible message" to the rebels that "we back our words and our warnings with action".

The Foreign Secretary (above), said: "Since we last took action 10 days ago, there have been more than 12 attacks on shipping by the Houthis in the Red Sea."

"What we have done again is send the clearest possible message that we will continue to degrade their ability to carry out these attacks while sending the clearest possible message that we back our words and our warnings with action."

Lord Cameron added the UK had "no quarrel with the Yemeni people" but action was needed to respond to the "indiscriminate" attacks by the Houthis.

He said: "What the Houthis are doing is unacceptable and illegal."

Blast kills 21 Israel soldiers

THE Israeli army says 21 of its soldiers have been killed in Gaza – the deadliest day for Israeli forces since the start of their ground operation.

It is thought a rocket-propelled grenade hit a tank near two buildings they were in.

The buildings exploded as result of mines that Israeli forces had placed there to demolish them.

The IDF says it is still investigating the details of the incident.

It took place in central Gaza, close to the kibbutz of Kissufim on the Israeli side of the border, at around 4pm on Monday.

COPS GRAB TOPLESS FEMINISTS

SAY what you like about these feminists, they certainly know how to get their point across!

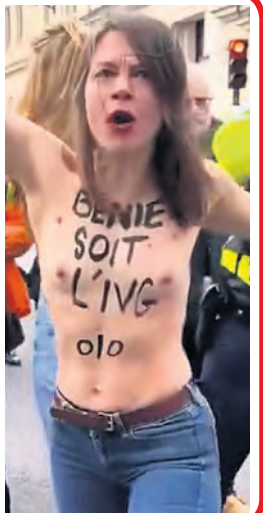

Protesters from pressure group Femen braved the chilly Paris winter to go topless in a bid to disrupt an anti-abortion march.

Both pro-life and pro-choice protesters took to the streets – but all eyes were on the Femen activists who appeared topless with slogans on their bodies.

Messages such as "my body, my rights" and "abortion is sacred" were among those displayed by the activists.

Videos posted on Twitter showed the activists being met with opposition from anti-abortion protesters who forcibly removed banners.

The Femen activists were subsequently detained by cops, sparking criticism from the group about the handling of their protest.

WHAT THE ACTUAL F**K, PRIME MINISTER?

BUNGLING Rishi Sunak was accused of "taking the piss" after the government's new WhatsApp channel was launched with an excruciating town crier video.

the PR stunt went down like a lead balloon as the public face record NHS waiting lists, potholed roads, a former Army chief warned forces were at a dangerously-low level and 3,000 workers in Port Talbot have been told they're being sacked as Tata Steel move into line with Net Zero zealotry.

The video has also met with derision on social media, with many referencing the fact that both Rishi Sunak and Boris Johnson failed to provide WhatsApp messages from the pandemic during the COVID Inquiry in late 2023.

Bandit

Furious Brits took to Twitter to voice their exasperation at the publicly-funded stunt.

Tom commented: "This is beyond tone deaf. Performative nonsense, serves no purpose and probably someone will be making off like a bandit in terms of taxpayer's money". Bobby Mason a waste of time and money when there are so many bigger, life threatening things to be fixing."

The video was released hours before Mr Sunak's flagship policy to stop illegal immigration hit the rocks in the House of Lords.

With public disquiet about migration at an all-time high, the government plans to send illegal immigrants to Rwanda.

Treaty

Peers backed for the new UK-Rwanda treaty to be delayed until Kigali improves its asylum procedures.

Peers backed a motion calling the government not to ratify the treaty by 214 votes to 171.

While non-binding, the vote on the treaty gives an indication of the level of opposition Mr Sunak is likely to face when the bill is debated in the House of Lords next week.

Rail chaos as Jocelyn hits Britain

STORM Jocelyn brought more chaos to the UK yesterday, a day after Storm Isha wreaked havoc and left at least five people dead.

Rainfall lashed western Scotland, north-west England, the Yorkshire Dales and north-west Wales.

All ScotRail trains were suspended from 7pm yesterday and will not restart this morning.

The train provider said each route would need to undergo a safety inspection before being able to operate due to the risk of trees and other debris falling onto the track.

The north and west of Scotland got the worst of the winds, with speeds reaching 80mph.

TransPennine Express, which operates rail services between northern England and Scotland, was "strongly urging" customers going to or from Edinburgh not travel after 3pm yesterday.

Meanwhile, Avanti West Coast advised passengers not to travel north of Preston after 3.30pm.

Government borrows less

GOVERNMENT borrowing in December was lower than expected, according to latest official figures.

Borrowing – the difference between spending and tax income – was £7.8bn last month, the Office for National Statistics said.

The amount was below forecasts with many economists and analysts expecting borrowing to be double at £14bn.

The figures were boosted by a steep drop in how much interest the government paid.

Interest payments on government debt fell to £4bn last month, down by £14.1bn from December 2022.

That was helped by the decline in the rate of inflation which has cut the level of interest payments.

SEXY BRITNEY BARES... AGAIN!

ONE of the great joys in life must be going on a seaside walk near Britney Spears's beachfront home...

Because there's a very good chance of seeing the chart topper baring her busters and mimsy!

Last week, Brit shared another eye-catching nude pic of herself on the beach with her Instagram fans.

The 42-year-old blonde has a reputation for cheerfully uploading nude images of her frolicking about on social media.

The Toxic hitmaker posted her latest naked beach snap and crowed: "Just landed in French Polynesia!"

The post comes amid claims music industry bigwigs are trying to coax Britney back into the recording studio for a new album.

"Management and A&R are trying to get Britney excited for the music," a source told Rolling Stone.

"As of right now, she's not actively recording but they're getting songs done to present to her."

The source added that "nothing is cemented or in stone" with regards to the Grammy-winning singer making a record, after Britney herself recently vowed that she "will never return to the music industry".

The ...Baby One More Time babe made the statement on Instagram as she moved to deny two reports she's currently working on her 10th album.

Hopkins: I'm happy to be Billy no mates

SIR Anthony Hopkins is a "loner" who "doesn't have many friends".

The Silence Of The Lambs star, 86, says he keeps to himself a lot because he enjoys solitude.

But he insists he's not "antisocial" as he has a rich family life and keeps himself busy with work and hobbies.

He said: "I'm very much a loner. I have very few friends. I'm not antisocial. I'm friendly, but I don't seek out company ... I do enjoy solitude."

Hopkins has shown off his silly side on TikTok with his goofy dance videos, and he has insisted his wife Stella and 20-year-old niece Tara talked him into joining.

He added: "I'm slightly reluctant. But I do something silly because we need humour. We need a laugh in life. Life is tough. The world is a savage place but life does have its beauty."

AS SAM FOX IS NICKED FOR BOOZY BUST-

WHEN GLAMOUR BABES

ATTACK!

By HARPER HAYES news@sundaysport.co.uk

GLAMOUR legend Samantha Fox was held in jail overnight after an alleged drunken altercation on a plane.

The iconic model, 56, was reportedly on a flight from London to Munich when she allegedly had a disagreement with another passenger.

It's claimed the plane was ready for take-off on the runway but had to be turned around at Heathrow after Page 3 trailblazer Sam allegedly caused a scene.

Passengers were reportedly asked to disembark and were accommodated in a hotel before continuing their journey the next day.

It's claimed Sam is deeply sorry following the alleged incident and has apologised.

Police confirmed that a woman in her 50s was arrested on suspicion of being drunk on an aircraft and has been bailed until March.

Sam, who rose to fame as a glamour model in the 80s before becoming a pop star, married her partner of six years Linda Oslen in 2022, with a lavish ceremony in Essex.

Saved

Prior to Linda, Sam spent 12-years with her former manager and long-term partner Myra Stratton, until her then-fiancée passed away from cancer in 2015.

Last year, Sam had another devastating loss when her sister Vanessa passed away suddenly from a heart attack at the age of 50.

In her 2017 book, Forever, Sam shared how close she was to Vanessa, who once saved her from their alcoholic father Pat.

Sam recalled: "I thought he was going to kill me. He kicked me so hard in the stomach it winded me and he wouldn't stop."

But Sam's not the first glamour model to have a run-in with the cops. And some have been a LOT naughtier than her...

SOPHIE, then 19, said she was "provoked" into kicking police officers during a night out in her hometown of Workington, Cumbria, in 2013. She was ordered to attend a Thinking Skills course and given a community order. She was also told to pay more than £1,000 costs and compensation to the officers.

Swift move by cops to nick stalker

A MAN was charged with harassment and stalking after several complaints were made about an "emotionally disturbed male acting erratically" in the vicinity of Taylor Swift's home.

David Crowe, 33, from Seattle, Washington, was arrested near the pop star's townhouse on Franklin Street and taken into custody, where he was charged.

A spokesperson for the NYPD said: "Multiple complainants pointed out an emotionally disturbed male acting erratically at the location."

"Once officers observed the male harassing multiple complainants, they took him to custody without further incidents, no injuries were reported."

He was charged with two counts of harassment and two counts of stalking.

It comes days after Swift's house appeared to be the target of an attempted break-in, after police arrested a man on the street.

Couple claim they were driven from sex-swapping scene for being TOO FAT*FAT SHAMED: Elvis and Tracy*YOU ONLY SWING WHEN YOU'RE SLIMMING!

Lynn, these are fat people!

A PAIR of former swingers say they were driven from the sex-swapping scene - for being too FAT.

Elvis Sharps, 43, and his partner Tracy Doncaster say they were subject to death threats and derogatory comments.

The pair started swinging - openly having a sexual relationship with other people - 12 years ago.

Now the Chandler's Ford, Hants, couple are now calling for websites and clubs to be closed down.

Elvis said: "We started swinging because we wanted to add more excitement to our relationship, and we wanted to make friends too."

"We got a lot of abuse from the first time we did it, with people calling us fat, saying we look like mother and son. People were judging us by our looks."

"We met one couple about three times, but they turned against us for no reason."

"We stopped swinging in January 2023 because things got so bad."

Tracy is keen to dispel the myth that the world of swinging is fun and accepting. The 55-year-old said: "Behind the scenes, it's not as pretty a picture as people make it out to be. People can be nasty."

"My advice would be to people - don't do it, especially if you are plus size."

"I wish we never started it, and I am glad we are out of it all."

"We have a really good relationship, and we don't need anybody else."

Elvis and Tracy are now directing their efforts towards advocating for the closure of various swinging sites.

Abused

Elvis said: "We want to warn people of the dangers of swinging and dogging - the drama, the drugs, it all happens."

"There's a whole other side to swinging and dogging. We have been abused and singled out by people in that scene."

Since giving up the swinging lifestyle, the pair are happier than ever - and even plan to soon tie the knot.

Elvis said: "We are stronger in our relationship and we are planning on getting married."

CHLOE HAMMOND

CHLOE Hammond was jailed for five years after she bit off part of a woman's ear in a brutal road rage attack.

Chloe, 27, flew into a rage when she was told off by Julie Holloway for using her mobile phone while at the wheel of her Audi TT sports car.

Mobile phone footage captured the moment Hammond clamped her teeth down on Miss Holloway's ear, shaking her head about "like a dog with a chew toy", before spitting the severed flesh on to the pavement.

Men who had the treatment had an average 50 per cent improvement in their erectile function. And the effects from one month of treatment lasted up to 18 months.

Erectile dysfunction (ED), an inability to obtain or maintain an erection, is experienced by around half of men aged 40 to 70, according to the British Association of Urological Surgeons.

The new study, by urologists in Turkey showed breathing in the pure oxygen worked just as well as the little blue pill - with 50 per cent of the men being cured of the dreaded droop.

Neighbour's stabbed by loud snorer

A LOUD-snoring man allegedly killed his neighbour with whom he had a long-standing feud over the nighttime noise.

Christopher James Casey, 55 (above), was arrested for fatally stabbing 62-year-old Robert Wallace when an argument over the snoring turned deadly.

Wallace showed up at Casey's residence in Hatboro, Pennsylvania, while Casey was eating dinner, pulled out a screen and unlocked a window on Casey's porch before the two began yelling.

The heated argument escalated, and Casey stabbed Wallace in the chest several times with a large knife, prosecutors said.

Wallace, who was found lying on the ground 50ft from his home, was taken to Abington Hospital, where he was later pronounced dead.

Casey was also taken to the same hospital and treated for a self-inflicted stab wound to his thigh.

Casey told police at the hospital that Wallace had not been threatening him when he stabbed him in the doorway, but revealed the two had been having "personal issues" for the past 18 months – prompting numerous police calls over Wallace's complaints about his snoring.

Casey has been charged with murder and is due in court on January 29.

Flasher dies after cutting off own cock

A CONVICTED sex offender with a history of mental health issues bled to death after cutting off his own PENIS, an inquest heard.

Reginald Alan Roach was found by a dog walker on a field near a business park in Bangor, North Wales, on November 6, 2022.

The 63-year-old was taken to hospital but could not be saved.

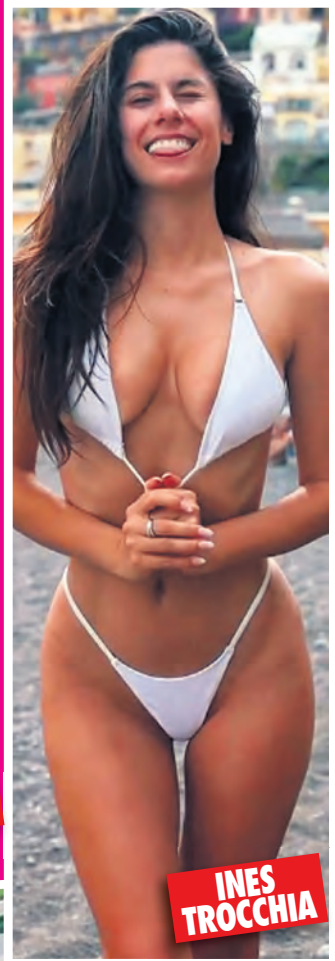

Previously he had pointed to his crotch and told a probation officer he was too old and "did not need these".

A coroner concluded there was no third-party involvement and that Mr Roach had died from shock and haemorrhaging after removing his genitalia himself.

Mr Roach was given a suspended prison sentence and had to register as a sex offender in August 2022 after he admitted exposing himself at a Travelodge.

MURDER MUM HID SON'S BODY BEHIND A FALSE WALL

HELD:
Jerri
Isreal

A MUM is accused of killing her own son and then hiding his body behind a false wall.

By AL BOLEY

news@sundaysport.co.uk

Cops nicked Jerri Lynn Isreal, 66, for murder in the death of her son John Allen Gaither, 42.

The investigation began late last year when officers received a call about a possible missing person at a home in Gulfport, Mississippi.

As detectives investigated further, they noticed several discrepancies in Isreal's statements.

"She became uncooperative and changed her statements several times," police said in a statement.

Cops discovered that Isreal was convicted of a 1993 murder in Palm Beach, Florida, where she killed a woman and drove around with her body in the boot of her car.

On the back of this, investigators got a search warrant for Isreal's home. There, cops found Mr Gaither's body in a wooden box placed behind a false wall.

Police have not released a cause of death or a motive behind the killing.

Detectives took Isreal to the Harrison County Adult Detention Centre, where she is being held.

Isreal, then known as Jerri Gaither, served a 17-year sentence after her murder conviction in Florida.

She shot 44-year-old Christina Racey dead in July 1993 and then drove around with her body in the boot, dumping it in Indian River County, Florida.

Authorities found Isreal walking along a remote road with a gun in her hand on July 13, 1995, while threatening to commit suicide.

Drugs

She initially tried to blame her then-boyfriend, saying he killed Racey over drugs and ordered her to dump the body.

Police arrested him for murder, but the charges were later dropped.

Isreal was charged with murder, but skipped town after posting bail.

She was on the run for nearly two years until a Florida Highway Patrol trooper pulled her car over in June 1995 and arrested her.

She later pleaded guilty to murder and was released from prison in 2003.

Drunk tries to steal panties

POLICE arrested a boozy pervers who tried to steal a woman's panties as she walked along the street.

Officers in Shiki, Japan, nicked the 27-year-old man on suspicion of assault and attempted robbery after he tried to steal underwear.

Cops said Kodai Susa, from Niiza City, grabbed the shoulders of the woman in her 20s who was walking home alone, forced her down to the ground, and tried to steal her lingerie.

A man in his 30s, who heard the woman's cries for help, chased Susa for several hundred yards and subdued him.

The woman was not injured.

Police said Susa has admitted the charge and quoted him as saying: "I think I did it, but I was drunk."

Councillor stabs girl and hubby

A WOULD-be councillor stabbed her daughter and husband after accusing them both of being "the devil," police have confirmed.

Julie Mitchell, 54 (above), was covered in blood and armed with a large kitchen knife when cops arrived at her Fort Lauderdale, Florida, home.

Mitchell, who is running for a village council seat, resisted arrest and whacked two officers who were trying to control her.

Her teen daughter, who was hysterically crying, was found outside the home with a cut to her head.

"My mum just stabbed me and my dad," she told police at the scene.

Mitchell's husband was found inside, suffering from a stab wound to his left arm.

All three were rushed to hospital, where Mitchell said: "God still loves the world and he gave us his only son."

One officer said: "Mitchell told me that Satan lived in her home. She said her husband, daughter and their dog are the devil so she sodomized her husband and stabbed her daughter in the heart. When I asked her if she thought her daughter and husband were dead or alive, she said she thought they're both dead."

Fire chief held over BJ video

A FORMER fire chief has been arrested after allegedly recording a woman sucking him off without her consent.

Prosecutors said that 53-year-old John Rose is facing charges of photographing, videotaping or electronically surveilling partially nude or nude persons.

Prosecutors said that Massachusetts State Police began investigating last month after learning Rose allegedly had a video showing a person performing sex acts on him, which was recorded without that person's consent.

Rose was the fire chief in Oak Bluffs, Massachusetts, before resigning in 2020 amid an FBI inquiry into sexual harassment allegations and ambulance finances.

Rose was suspended last month from the West Tisbury Fire Department, where he was working as a fireman, after a harassment prevention order was granted against him.

SECURITY GUARD HAD A SEVERED HAND IN HIS POCKET

DENIAL:
Solomon
Martinez

A SECURITY guard was caught carrying a severed HAND inside his coat pocket, just a day after a mutilated, headless body was found in a nearby stream.

Solomon Martinez, 26, was held at work on suspicion of murder in the death of the woman – believed to be the owner of the hand, cops in Pueblo, Colorado, said.

He admitted to hiring the woman as a prostitute days before, but denied committing the murder.

Cops quickly zeroed in on Martinez after his roommate caught him covered in dirt and blood at a local car wash, two days before his arrest.

Martinez allegedly used a pressure washer to clean the blood off his hands and asked his roommate to dig a 10ft hole for him.

The roommate, who was at the car

By MARIA RODRIGUEZ
news@sundaysport.co.uk

wash to work on his vehicle, told police he asked to borrow tools from Martinez, but the alleged killer refused to allow him to open the boot of the car to retrieve them.

Martinez then allegedly struggled to move “something big” in the boot out of the way to grab the tools.

Another witness backed up the roommate’s claims, saying he also heard Martinez make comments about needing to dig a deep hole.

The witness, a friend of the security guard, also told police that he watched Martinez drag what appeared to be a woman’s body down to the creek bed that same morning.

The body was decapitated, but her head was with her body, the friend reported. He took video at the scene to “cover for himself” before covering the body with a blanket because he “didn’t know what else to do”.

Police tracked Martinez down to his job at a security guard company owned by the former Pueblo County Sheriff, who had hired him two weeks earlier.

That’s when investigators found the human hand.

School removes TikTok mirrors

A SCHOOL has removed mirrors from its toilets because pupils were spending too much time making TikTok videos.

Education bosses said that Southern Alamosa Middle School in North Carolina resorted to removing the shithouse mirrors to cut down on student distractions.

Some pupils were caught cutting class and visiting the lavvy up to NINE times a day.

“Students were going to the bathroom for long periods of time and making TikTok videos,” a schools system spokesman said.

The school has also implemented a hall pass system, which lets pupils check in and out of class, but allows the school to track that time.

FIREMEN RESCUE ESCAPED PANDA

A RED panda named Barney escaped from his enclosure at a zoo and was none too pleased when he was captured and brought back.

The pesky critter was discovered missing from his home at the Cologne Zoo in Germany.

Zoo employees soon spotted Barney high up in a tree outside the enclosure, but he “could not be persuaded to leave on his own accord”.

Photos showed the red panda staring down at onlookers, seemingly basking in the fact that he was beyond their reach.

In need of assistance, the zoo called the local fire department, and using a ladder truck, crew brought Barney back down to safety.

“Zookeepers caught the little panda on the ground and released him back into his enclosure,” the zoo wrote on social media, adding that back in his enclosure, Barney was “grumbling ever so slightly”.

Cult boss 'killed 191 children'

A DOOMSDAY cult leader and 30 of his followers face charges of murdering 191 kids.

The religious nuts faced a court in the town of Malindi, Kenya.

Preacher Paul Mackenzie (above) and the other suspects did not enter pleas because High Court Judge Mugure Thande granted a request from prosecutors that they undergo mental assessments and return to court next month.

The remains of 180 of the 191 victims have not been identified.

Mackenzie and some of his followers have been blamed for the deaths of 429 members of his Good News International Church, many of whom are believed to have starved themselves in the belief that by doing so they would meet Jesus Christ before the world ends.

The bodies were found in shallow graves on a ranch in Kilifi.

It's Burns Night tomorrow, folks, so raise a glass

SCOTS WHA HAE!

By PETER HEAD

news@sundaysport.co.uk

IF you thought that Shakespeare was gibberish, Scotland's national poet, Robert Burns, will blow your mind.

Tomorrow is a big day north of the Border and for Scots (and pretend Scots) worldwide as the life and works of "Rabbie" are celebrated on Burns Night tomorrow.

This involves scoffing haggis and drinking whisky while reciting his famous poems, which were often written in what is described as light Scots dialect.

Celebrate

Famous works include, To a Mouse, A Man's a Man for A' That, Ae Fond Kiss, Scots Wha Hae, Tam O'Shanter, Halloween and The Battle of Sherramuir.

No, we can't make head nor tail of that little lot either.

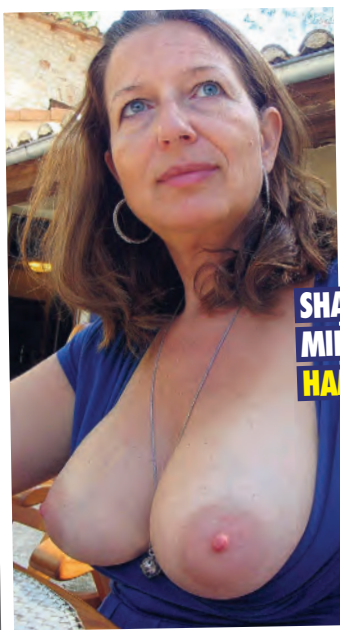

But today we are proud to celebrate Scotland's bard in our own way, crying "Wah Hae" as some famous Scots with fine busters doff their tops...

A POULTRY processing plant has been rapped by safety watchdogs after an underage worker was tragically killed in a chicken-plucking machine.

Duvan Tomas Perez, 16 (above), died when he was pulled into machinery at the Mar-Jac Poultry plant in Hattiesburg, Mississippi.

Investigators from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration ruled the company had "disregarded safety standards" and was entirely responsible for the horrific incident.

is aware of how dangerous the machinery they use can be when safety standards are not in place to prevent serious injury and death," an OSHA spokesman said in a statement.

"The company's inaction has directly led to this terrible tragedy, which has left so many to mourn this preventable death."

Duvan, a Guatemalan immigrant who had been in the US for six years, was cleaning out the machine at the plant on July 14 when it suddenly activated and drew him in.

Investigators found the machine had not been disconnected from the power before cleaning began.

THE melting Arctic permafrost could unleash ancient zombie viruses and trigger a catastrophic global health emergency, concerned scientists say.

"We face a tangible threat and we need to be prepared to deal with it... it's as simple as that," geneticist Jean-Michel Claverie, professor emeritus of medicine and genomics at Aix-Marseille University, said.

Experts are already working with the University of the Arctic on establishing a monitoring network to help identify cases of diseases caused by ancient micro-organisms early on – before their spread can spiral out of control.

The network would also provide quarantine facilities and medical services for anyone infected, to help minimize a potential outbreak – including preventing contagious patients from leaving the region.

The 32G scorcher has relaunched her 'Michelle's Stud Search' in which she hunts down new talent to star alongside her in hardcore porn movies.

But you'll need to measure up to appear on camera with one of Britain's best-loved porn stars.

The Bristol nympho said: "First and foremost, you need to have a large penis – the bigger the better. I would say seven inches is a minimum.

"Also, if you are young-looking, like Jordi, (baby-faced Spanish porn hunk Jordi El Niño Polla) that's an advantage because younger-looking blokes look better in MILF movies.

"And I'm afraid a big gut is out, too. This is for practical reasons. If you are shooting POV (point-of-view, from the bloke's perspective) a big gut gets in the way and viewers can't see the action.

"And, of course, you need to be able to keep it up and not come too soon – but be able to come on camera. That's trickier than it sounds if there's a film crew there!"

Michelle has been in the porn business for decades and has been running her 'Stud Search' for years, too. Now it's back for the OnlyFans generation.

She said: "Michelle's 'Stud Search' has brought some big names into the business. Jack Wilson was a find in the 'Stud Search' and Sam Bourne also appeared in a previous one."

And it's not just blokes.

Michelle, who has made some classic lesbian porn, too, said: "There's also a 'Babe Search' where I'm looking for women to star with me."

To take part, anyone interested simply has to join Michelle's OnlyFans (she has a sale on at the moment with 75% off the normal price) and send her a vid of themselves in action. She said: "I will provide an online 'audition' – a bit like a cock-rating."

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

They think they've won...but they lost every argument

DO you remember when it was still possible to have a conversation with someone where points of view could be exchanged without it ending up in a fist fight?

When people were able to debate a topic and, even though they disagreed, were still able to shake hands and walk away with their heads held high?

It wasn't perfect, and this is by no means a sepia-tinted look back at the non-existent good old days.

But how did we get to where we are now, seemingly in a constant scrap with one another, if not with actual fists but words threatening to use them?

The single most obvious example is Brexit, of course.

The Remainers will never forgive the Leavers.

The Leavers will never understand the Remainers.

That one's going to take an entire generation of 20 to 25 years to calm down.

Then there was the pandemic, where we all lost the plot.

Even now we bump into the odd bod in the supermarket still wearing one of those entirely useless face masks – doubly maddening when it's under their noses.

Some still even do that ridiculous two-metre thing in the queue.

And how angry did people get if they thought you were breaking the precious rules?

Curtains twitched. Furtive phone calls were made. Neighbours turned on each other.

Everyone was encouraged to be a grass, and to stay inside.

Until they were told they could go outside again, but only if they went home at 10pm.

And you couldn't have a pint without a ploughman's lunch while standing on one leg and humming the Spice Girls hit 2 Become 1.

All madness. But worse still, we bloody AGREED to it all – at least initially.

No sooner had we emerged blinking at the welcome sunlight, we would soon be desperate to run away again from the next Big Row.

Which was, and is, so ridiculous that when you see it written down in black and white, it just makes you laugh.

Can a woman have a penis?

Which to me is the same as asking if blind people can see.

Or can a bear shit in the woods?

But that didn't stop the blue-haired pitchfork brigade flaring up their torches and heading straight for Confrontation Station.

Yes, they said, despite that small matter of a biology accepted for millennia, a lady can indeed have a healthy wang meat and if it's sitting on top of a pair of very hairy male knackers, all the better.

And if you tried to say: "Actually, this is – pardon the pun – absolute bollocks," you got the Fergie-style hairdryer treatment from the online blue-haired barmpots.

Social media has never been so popular, even though it seems it's only use appears to be as an outlet for impossibly argumentative lefties to tell everyone else just how shit and stupid they are.

Which includes...

Wearing your mask while riding your bike along the promenade.

Celebrating the fact your girlfriend has a bigger cock than you.

Realising you're a thicko in dire need of re-education.

It's actually no wonder why we're all at each other throats.

Because winners in arguments – Brexit, only women are women, no I won't stand two metres apart – are somehow in this topsy-turvy world considered the losers.

Only the left can do this – turn a decision on its head and tell everyone that black is white, curd is whey, and two plus two equals five.

They're mad, and they know it, but because they can hold their precious little pinko hands up and declare "no argument", this is what we're left with.

And that's why everyone wants to kill each other.

Top cop asked pal's wife for naked photos

A RANDY police chief was fired after he repeatedly asked a colleague's wife for nude pics on social media.

Jon Clark (above), who served as police chief in Mars Hill, North Carolina, since 2021, solicited a relationship with the wife of Captain Chad Wilson last year, asking for topless photos through Snapchat.

"Your conduct in attempting to pursue a romantic relationship with the wife of one of your officers is reprehensible," Town Manager Nathan Bennett wrote, while sacking Clark.

"To actively solicit that relationship is unforgivable and puts your Department and the Town of Mars Hill at risk," Bennett said.

The woman did not respond to Clark's request and shared screenshots of the distasteful inquiries with her husband who in turn shared them with Bennett.

After reviewing the messages, Bennett hired an independent investigator to look into the allegations with the note indicating Clark had lied to both of them when he was confronted.

Bennett also said the now-former chief showed unsafe use of weapons and improper use of his vehicle.

'Nonce' fled from cops in snowstorm

A SUSPECTED sex offender escaped a police car during a snowstorm – and then turned himself back in less than an hour later, having proved no match for the bone-chilling weather.

Demarkus Davis, 20, was being transported to the Shelby County Jail in Tennessee as snow was blanketing the streets of Memphis, when he somehow managed to escape a patrol car while handcuffed.

A corrections officer who was driving Davis flagged down a Memphis cop to report the escape of the detainee.

The Memphis police put out the escapee's description, revealing that he was dressed in a pair of blue jeans and a hooded sweatshirt.

Temperatures plunged to minus 10 as snow piled up, making it a bad night for Davis to be out on the streets in that clothing.

About 45 minutes after his getaway, Davis stopped a stranger half a mile from his getaway and asked them to call cops so he could surrender.

SNOOP DOG TURNS DOWN £80M ONLYFANS PAYDAY

It's J.Lo in her drawers!

BUSTY Jennifer Lopez is a proper petal.

The 54-year-old singer and actress sniffed a bouquet as she posed in red undies for Italian brand Intimissimi.

A fan said: "By the look on her husband Ben Affleck's face most of the time, I imagine J.Lo is quite hard work. But I'd be happy to do some of the heavy lifting for Ben, for a while at least."

SNOOP Dogg says that he turned down an offer to make £80million as an X-rated creator on OnlyFans – because what's in his pants is only for his wife to see.

The rapper recalled the offer on an episode of Slink Johnson's Wake & Bake YouTube show.

Snoop said a proposition to post on OnlyFans came his way, but he didn't clarify who the offer was from.

While there are OnlyFans creators besides the sexually explicit ones usually associated with the website, the Doggystyle star said he'd have to share his manhood with the public to make the estimated millions.

Snoop explained he turned down the idea out of respect for his wife and longtime love, Shante Broadus. The rapper believed that his missus wouldn't ever allow him to post a photo online of his package – regardless of the cash amount offered.

"They got at me when one of them little girls made like $20million on there," Snoop said.

"They were like, 'OnlyFans wants you to come on there, Snoop. You could do about $100 million (£80m). All you gotta do is pull that thang out'.

"I'm like, 'I got a wife, man. Ain't no way in the world she gonna allow me to go on there and pull that thang out for no amount of money'."

By KIT JACKSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Although he skipped out on the megabucks offer, Snoop is securing other lucrative deals.

In August last year, the rapper-actor-entrepreneur dropped his first shoe collection with Sketchers.

The line includes slip-ins and lace-up trainers costing up to £100. The ongoing collaboration is part of a multi-year partnership the hip-hop legend signed with the shoe company.

"The excellent team at Sketchers took my ideas and my flavour, and we created this collection for all walks of life," said Snoop. "Step yo' shoe game up with my style and swag in every pair – with Sketchers, you'll be comfortable wherever you go. Wear them with a suit to a wedding or on the court with shorts – you'll look fly either way."

COVID puppies bite back

PUPPIES bought during lockdown are more likely to have problem behaviours, a new study suggests.

Research by the Royal Veterinary College has found those dogs had alarming rates of separation anxiety and aggression towards other dogs.

The RVC study, which was funded by Rescue charity Battersea, received 1,007 valid responses through an online survey of Brits who got a dog during the first nine months of the pandemic.

Its findings come after the UK's dog population rose to an estimated 11 million in the past few years.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'M a reasonably good-looking 28-year-old single bloke – I recently divorced my miserable wife – and I work in a factory with lots of women, many of whom are married.
I really fancy one of them, a 35-year-old attractive blonde with a fantastic figure, and she's always up for a laugh.
We spend a lot of time together, enjoying a bit of banter and often talking really dirty to each other, and I've reached the point where I'm gagging to give her one.
The other morning we were chatting at the vending machine and she told me she'd had a dream about me shagging her senseless in the store room.
But I'm scared of asking her for sex in case she was only joking and knocks me back – before telling all the other women.
What do you reckon?

GS, Lancs

Sam says...
SOUNDS to me like she'd be up for it, so go ahead and take the plunge.

Dear Sam,

I'M an 18-year-old girl at college. I'm blonde, 5ft 8in tall with a trim figure and big boobs and I've had loads of snogs with lads my age but they all seem so immature.
One of my lecturers is really hot and a few weeks ago I lost my virginity to him after he offered me private tuition.
He spent the evening at his flat carefully going through my revision notes but ended up leading me upstairs and making love to me in his bed.
I'm not complaining because he was such a caring lover but I don't think I should go round again.
I thought he genuinely wanted to help me, but my pal says the lecturer has a reputation for this sort of thing and only wanted to get in my knickers.
Who is right?

TB, Nottingham

Sam says...
I'LL give it to you straight, don't be so naive!

Tall man banged me long and hard on car park table

Dear Sam,

I RECENTLY started a new job and there is a tall, fit bloke works in the accounts office there.
Last week we had a party in a local pub as we all celebrated a huge new order that had come in.
So I went along with one of the girls I sit with. Me and my pal were soon very tipsy and decided to tease the tall man.
He was up for a bit of fun, so we got him outside in the car park, under the pretext of just having a smoke.
There was no-one else around so I was quickly on him, kissing him with tongues and undoing his silk shirt.
Then my pal unzipped his trousers and let his massive cock spring out. It was eight inches long and I knelt down and started licking and sucking it.
My friend then lifted her skirt and pulled her knickers aside so that he could finger her.
I sat on a wooden table and he shafted me roughly until I orgasmed.
I sucked him hard again so that he could bang my pal.
The problem is that the next day my mate told all the other girls at work what we'd done with the tall man.
Now I'm terrified we'll both get the sack. What do you think?

DK, Weymouth

Sam says...

THAT'S the risk you run by being too frisky at office parties. Just don't do it again!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week SAM TYE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Amazing lover has a pants obsession

Dear Sam,

I AM an attractive divorcee in my early 30s. Since my husband left I hardly go out, but a friend encouraged me to socialise more.

It was on a night at my local social club that I met my man. We hit it off from the beginning, although I was a bit cautious when it came to sex. But after a lovely dinner and a few drinks, I invited him back to my place. His foreplay was wonderful. He teased me with his fingers and then his agile tongue played against my clitoris until I was begging him to enter me.

Suspicious

He thrust deeply inside me, making me squeal with delight, and I watched with ever increasing ecstasy his big cock sliding in and out of me.

And when we reached orgasm he was so big and hard I felt the whole of me being filled.

Afterwards we lay in each other's arms, then he apologised for not being able to stay.

I was a bit suspicious, thinking maybe he was married. When I cleared up the clothes I'd left behind, I was puzzled when I couldn't find my panties but decided it was nothing to worry about.

The next time he came round we took things more leisurely, undressing each other in the dim light of the bedside lamp.

I was already naked as I came to lower his trousers. Underneath, to my shock, he was wearing my knickers, stretched to the limit by the most enormous erection.

He laughed and said he wore them to remind him of me, but again I was left feeling slightly uneasy.

That soon passed as he again softened me up with his amazing foreplay.

He gently nibbled on my erect nipples before easing his tongue all the way down my body to tease my aching fanny.

Finally, he raised my legs high in the air and thrust hard into me.

We had the most wonderful sex and he brought me to the brink of climax over and over.

A few days later we met again and this time I pressed him to show me his home.

He seemed a bit reticent but he agreed. He lives in a very well-kept apartment which he bought after splitting with his own wife.

In his bedroom I could not help but notice a partly open drawer and inside were about 20 pairs of silky smalls.

When I confronted him, he admitted that he liked to keep and wear mementos of past lovers.

Now I feel I could be discarded just as easily. Am I worrying too much?

SD, Sussex

Sam says...

I WOULDN'T worry. He obviously loves his women and just has a harmless little fetish.

Dear Sam,

I'M a plumber and I've lost count of the women who've offered me sex in their homes.

For some reason they seem obsessed with my tools and can't wait to get hold of my plunger.

One woman asked to be taken from behind with a loo seat over her head and another took an unhealthy interest in a U-bend.

But now I'm a little bit more choosy about whose waterworks I check.

Generally, birds in posh houses are the most horny. They often have a lot of time on their hands as their husbands work long hours.

I remember installing a bath for a woman in a select area of town.

Within minutes she reached into my sack and started playing with my pipe.

I took the gorgeous blonde from behind, had my dick sucked, and then watched her masturbate with the plunger.

On another occasion I went to a house to plumb in a washer when I was greeted by two sexy brunettes in their 30s.

It wasn't long before I was shagging one doggy-style while the other licked her mate out.

My job is the best. Do you agree?

WF, Dorset

Sam says...

YES. But be careful you don't wear out that plunger!

Manager's win bonus is sex with the team

Dear Sam,

A MATE of my wife has set up a football team. Because I'm a former semi-pro, she asked if I would manage them.

I agreed, but to be honest I wasn't looking forward to it. I thought they'd be a bunch of ugly lesbians.

I couldn't have been more wrong. When I got to the first training session, I saw all these fit birds.

After our first match I gave my strikers, two gorgeous 18-year-old blondes, a lift.

It wasn't long before one of them was sucking my cock while the other took her clothes off. I ended up shagging both of them.

Since then I've scored with most of the team. The centre-half loves anal sex, while the right winger loves to be tied up and taken from behind.

Porn

The skipper invites me round to talk tactics. This usually involves us watching porn videos of her having sex with her husband and his mates.

She then gets changed into her football kit, complete with shin pads and boots, and gives me a blowjob.

Then she takes her kit off, but leaves her boots on, and rides me.

The only problem is that my wife now wants to join the team. Obviously, I don't want her finding out about my 'team bonding' sessions.

What should I do?

KD, Newcastle

Sam says...

TELL your wife her idea is offside.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

#HOT'N'HORNY

RAMPANT Kelli Smith says she loves to get kinky – and that ANYTHING goes in the bedroom. The gorgeous 32D brunette has also revealed she works as a FETISH model and that nothing shocks her. And the beauty claims she feels sexy dressing up in outrageous outfits and racy lingerie sets.

The scorcher, from Ripley in Derbys, said: “As well as glamour modelling shoots, which I love doing, I’ve also worked for foot fetish websites.

“They’re always interesting, and you wouldn’t believe how many British men have a real kink for tootles!

“I’ve also posed for ‘down-blouse’ websites, where men get off on seeing cleavage, rather than full boob.

“I guess sometimes it’s sexier to be covered up than to be exposed.”

VICTORIA BLAZE

FARMER Harry Clayton might spend his days milking cows and mucking out pigs, but at night he loves to ogle Victoria Blaze.

Harry, 38, from Penrith, Cumbria, begged for a topless snap of Victoria, from Prague.

He said: "I see the back end of pigs as well as cows' udders all day, so there's nothing better than a photo of Victoria to perk me up."

"One glimpse of her 34C norks and I'm instantly hard as a rock."

Can I have a new one please?"

DANIELLE TWEEBEEKE

RETIRED civil servant Kenneth Bolton is a regular reader of the Sport and wrote in to ask for a photo of his favourite model Danielle Tweebieke.

Kenneth, 72, from Liverpool, reckons London beauty Danielle's 32C boobs are perfect.

He said: "It can get quite lonely and boring by myself, but I try to keep occupied."

"I read the Sport three times a week and no other girl but Danielle really does it for me."

"She's such a sexy, stunning woman and I absolutely love her gorgeous photos."

DEBBIE CLARKE

ELECTRICIAN Wayne Heywood fancies the pants off classic topless beauty Debbie Clarke.

Wayne, 55, from Macclesfield, says stunning beauty Dee is an 'absolute worldie' and says nothing turns him on more than her 34B boobs.

He wrote in to ask for a topless photo of Essex-born Debbie and said: "She is so fit with her perfect little boobs - she's a real hottie."

"If I got a date with her, there would definitely be sparks flying!"

STEPPING UP: Norrie

Cameron ready to fill Andy's trainers

SNOOKER

CAMERON Norrie leaves Australia convinced he can compete with the world's best after suffering an agonising five-set loss to Alexander Zverev.

The British number one broke new ground with a brilliant attacking display to defeat Casper Ruud in the third round of the Australian Open on Saturday and again showed the new dimensions he has added to his game to push the sixth seed all the way to a deciding tie-break.

Norrie, who had not won a set in their four previous meetings, twice came from behind to force a decider but it is Zverev who moves through to the quarter-finals after a 7-5 3-6 6-3 4-6 7-6 (10/3) victory.

Norrie, the final British singles player standing, reached the Wimbledon semi-finals in 2022 but the draw opened up for him and he did not have to beat a top-30 player, which has certainly not been the same here.

Confidence

The 28-year-old is still yet to beat a top-10 opponent at a grand slam, but he said: "I think Sascha (Zverev) is probably one of the best players in the world at the moment, and playing close with him and somewhat deep in a grand slam, losing in five sets, a few points in it, I think it's exactly where I want to be."

"I can take a lot of confidence from that. It's disappointing but I think it's nice to know I'm just looking for ways to evolve my game."

"I was toe-to-toe with him. I got absolutely chopped by him in Vienna at the end of last year, and I managed to take a completely different approach."

"I think there's still lots to come. I'm still 28 years old."

"I think you look at the longevity of the other players playing now, I think they're getting better."

"I just want to keep learning and keep pushing and keep improving."

"I learned a lot last year and the years before. I know I've got the top-10 level in me. I want to just keep taking steps towards that. I'm having fun playing."

FARRELL FLEES TO FRANCE

Former England skipper likely to have played his last international

OWEN Farrell could have played his last game for England after French club Racing 92 confirmed that he will join them next season.

The Saracens fly-half and captain will link up with the Parisians from July 1 on a two-year deal.

It will bring to an end his long and successful Saracens career that began in 2008 and has been littered with European and Premiership titles.

Farrell, 32, had already announced that he would miss this season's Guinness Six Nations in order to prioritise his and his family's mental well-being.

And he will become ineligible for international selection when he moves to France due to Rugby Football Union rules that do not permit players who ply their trade abroad to be selected for the national team.

His last England appearance was the World Cup bronze medal match against Argentina in Paris on October 27, which England won narrowly.

Racing are coached by Stuart Lancaster, who gave Farrell his Test debut in 2012 when he was England boss.

Radar

Farrell has gone on to win 112 caps, lead his country in the last two World Cup campaigns and is England's record international points-scorer.

He would be 34 if he leaves Racing after two years and returns to England, suggesting any international return would be unlikely.

Farrell, though, would be on the British and Irish Lions' radar for their 2025 Australia tour, which will see his father Andy fill the role of head coach.

A statement from Racing read: "Racing 92 formalises the signing of Owen Farrell within its professional men's team."

"The English international player is committed to two sporting seasons and will join the Ciel et Blanc squad from July 1, 2024."

Farrell will link up with the likes of South Africa's double World Cup-winning captain Siya Kolisi at Racing, along with exciting England back Henry Arundell.

Speaking after he announced his Six Nations squad last Wednesday, England head coach Steve Borthwick said: "I think what's important is that Owen makes a decision that is right for Owen and his family. "Will a player of Owen's calibre be missed if he chooses to play outside of England? Yes, of course."

"Do I want him in some point in the future to come back? Yes. But I also want him to do what's right for him and his family and have the experiences and the memories that he wants to make."

Successes

Farrell's decision will be a major blow for Saracens, although Racing's announcement will not have caught them on the hop as Saracens rugby director Mark McCall recently revealed that he knew what decision Farrell had made.

Farrell apart, a number of players who were key to Saracens' sustained European and Premiership successes over the past 10 years are unlikely to be involved after this summer.

Some will be out of contract and

THE WORLD OF RUGBY UNION

BIG MOVE: Farrell has swapped Sarries for the French league

departing, and others retiring, and McCall said last week: "Everybody realises the adventure we've been on is coming to an end, and there is a new adventure about to start with a group of younger players we are incredibly excited about who have signed up for the longer term."

"Players are going to retire or they are in the twilight of their careers – it is just the cycle of a team."

"I suppose all good things come to an end, and there is a re-energising effect and impact of a new group."

"We have met with the players who we believe will grab hold of it over the next three or four years. We have met with them regularly over the past couple of months."

"There is a new dawn coming, and it is exciting for everybody." Saracens have lost five of their last eight games and slipped outside the Premiership top four.

But they recovered from a record 55-15 European defeat against Bordeaux-Begles to book an Investec Champions Cup round-of-16 place by beating Lyon on Saturday.

Broadcasters

Meanwhile, the Government has rejected a select committee's call to add the Six Nations to the 'crown jewel' list of sports events which must be offered for live free-to-air broadcast.

The Welsh Affairs Committee had called for the annual rugby tournament to be added to Group A of the listed events schedule.

Where live rights for a Group A event, such as the Olympics, public service broadcasters must be given the opportunity to purchase the rights on fair and reasonable terms.

The Six Nations is a Group B event, where there is only a provision for highlights to be made available to free-to-air broadcasters.

To date the event has always been on free-to-air television, but there is uncertainty over what will happen when the BBC and ITV's current deal runs out at the end of the 2025 tournament.

The Government has now indicated there are no plans to look again at the schedule. The BBC's outgoing director of sport Barbara Slater told MPs on the Culture, Media and Sport select committee in November that her network may no longer be able to afford to keep its share of the rights alongside ITV.

BIG LOSS: Mark McCall

BACK: Wood

Wood keen to show his true form

CRICKET

MARK Wood admits England's World Cup blowout "really hurt" and is desperate to put things right on his return to Indian soil with the Test team.

Wood was part of the side that slumped to a seventh-place finish at the tournament a matter of weeks ago, with the defending champions ruthlessly exposed during a handful of stinging defeats.

Fresh from playing a crucial role in England's Ashes comeback over the summer, Wood was unable to lift the 50-over side in the same way, chipping in with just six wickets in seven matches and going at 6.46 runs an over.

Speaking ahead of Thursday's first Test in Hyderabad, where he is expected to provide the pace in spin-friendly conditions, Wood is eager to put those 50-over struggles firmly behind him.

"I didn't perform well in the World Cup and that was my last involvement so I feel like I've got a point to prove a little bit here," he said.

"I was very disappointed with that whole campaign, personally and as a team. Conditions might not be favourable for me but I'll be trying to put a better show than I did at the World Cup. We came here with big expectations and we didn't live up to it, nowhere near up to it."

"I was really upset with it. For about a week once I got home I was thinking, 'Why did I do that?' or 'Why was this happening?'. 'What did we do that for?'"

"It really hurt for a while but that's why there is a hunger to come back into this environment. I'm ready to try to prove that was just a one-off."

While England's status as defending champions meant they had been well fancied heading into the World Cup, the odds place them as distant second favourites ahead of the five-match series.

STILL GOING: Anderson

India have not been turned over at home since 2012, when Sir Alastair Cook's England scored a famous win, losing only three of their 46 subsequent Tests.

The widespread belief that India will prevail again on the kind of turning surfaces that undermined England's efforts in 2021 is liberating to Wood, who is focusing on the chance to do something special.

"We've created history in the past, (winning last year) in Pakistan. It's a free hit, to be honest," he said.

"Not many teams come here and win. If we give it a good go, we could go down in flames, but if we give it a go, it's no different to any other time."

The majority of England's XI seems to be locked in, with Harry Brook's return home for personal reasons opening the way for Ben Foakes to reclaim the wicketkeeping gloves from Jonny Bairstow.

Wood and James Anderson are favoured to take seam bowling duties, with Jack Leach likely to be joined by one of Tom Hartley or Rehan Ahmed in the spin ranks.

The squad's fourth spinner, 20-year-old Shoaib Bashir, missed a second training session on Tuesday after visa complications kept him grounded in Abu Dhabi.

ALL THE TOP TIPS FOR TODAY'S RACING

PENTLAND HILLS

PENTLAND HILLS CAN CLIMB HIGH

By MIKE FRANCIS

PENTLAND HILLS went into the notebook as one to stick with after last month's seasonal return and he can build on that promising run in the Betting.Bet Cheltenham Ante Post Racing Tips Handicap Hurdle at Chepstow.

Nicky Henderson's charge has had all sorts of problems since winning the Triumph and another Grade One contest at Aintree as a juvenile back in 2019, but connections have been eager to persevere with him.

He managed to scramble home in a Haydock Flat race last year when thrown in at the weights and was handed a walkover at Huntingdon, but things fell apart after that.

Enjoyed

The Seven Barrows maestro admitted Pentland Hills had simply never looked well in himself, though, so a line can be put through three consecutive poor efforts.

At Doncaster last month, he reappeared in much better condition and seemed to thoroughly enjoy the outing, jumping well and travelling strongly throughout before just being run out of it by Serious Operator.

That pair pulled well clear

TRAINER: Henderson

of the rest and James Bowen appeared keen to ensure Pentland Hills did not have a hard time of it, which can pay off this time with Freddie Gordon taking a handy 5lb off.

A 21lb uplift is slightly frustrating, but the nine-year-old remains dangerously well handicapped at fully 15lb below his highest ever mark.

Denemethy beat three-time scorer Lowry's Bar between the flags in Ireland and appeals in division one of the Betting.Bet Free Members Club Maiden Hurdle.

Now with Fergal O'Brien, the six-year-old was well backed when second in what appeared to be an above-average Carlisle bumper back in early November and will have been well schooled for this debut over timber.

James Jet has benefitted from a wind operation this term, securing narrow victories at Uttoxeter over hurdles and then Ffos Las, when tackling fences for the first time.

He has been reassessed accordingly each time but the manner in which he is progressing suggests he may have the scope to cope in the Betting.Bet Horse Racing Tips Aggregator Novices' Handicap Chase.

Warren Greatrex has another hat-trick-seeking charge up at Catterick with Herakles Westwood in the Best Odds Guaranteed At Vickers.Bet Handicap Hurdle.

The seven-year-old has come through strongly to lead at the last and then win going away at Lingfield and Fontwell, proving very versatile in terms of ground conditions.

Island Native got off the mark at the 15th attempt last week and looks the type to now grow in confidence as a result, so he can follow up in the BetMGM: It's Showtime Handicap at Lingfield.

Glen Heste can get punters off to a good start at Kempton in the Racing TV Handicap, having gone down by just a neck when second to Mamalouka over the same course and distance in a race that is working out well.

Seagulls have to swoop on goals

DE ZERBI FRUSTRATED BY MISSED CHANCES AS BRIGHTON STUTTER

ROBERTO DE ZERBI admitted depleted Brighton are dropping too many Premier League points following a frustrating goalless stalemate with Wolves.

Albion dominated possession at the Amex Stadium as they stretched their unbeaten home run to a club-record nine top-flight fixtures to climb to seventh, above Manchester United on goal difference.

But the Seagulls, who lacked a cutting edge on Monday evening, have drawn five of those fixtures and a league-high eight matches overall.

Energy

Brighton boss De Zerbi feels a lengthy injury list and European commitments are impacting his side's league results.

"We have to understand the situation of injuries, we have to understand how much energy we spent in the Europa League, in FA Cup, we have to analyse if we will be lucky or unlucky," said the

By ANDY MILLOM

Italian, whose side drew 0-0 with West Ham in their previous game.

"In the last two games in the Premier League we have been unlucky because two points after two games with good quality to win the game, we are losing too many points.

"We have been unlucky because five draws (at home), for example Sheffield United, Burnley, Fulham and Wolverhampton, we deserved to win all of the games.

"We didn't play the best game in my time (tonight) but we created a condition to win the game.

"Yes, we made some mistakes in the crucial part of the pitch and for it we didn't win."

Brighton controlled the play against Wolves but rarely threatened.

Facundo Buonanotte saw an early diving header cleared off the line by Tommy Doyle, while Wanderers captain Maximilian Kilman hit the frame of his own goal.

De Zerbi remains without the creative talents of Kaoru Mitoma, Simon Adingra, Ansu Fati, Solly March and

NEED A GOAL: Joao Pedro and Ferguson

Julio Enciso but dismissed talk of recruiting reinforcements this month.

"No, transfer market is not my business," he said.

"I have to be focused on my work and my work is to give organisation, to give a style, to try the condition to play well and make points.

"We are seventh place on the table and if you consider how many problems we had in the first part of the season we have to be proud because we are playing better than the situation we are enduring."

Wolves were thrashed 6-0 in this fixture last season but could have snatched victory.

Pedro Neto, Matheus Cunha and Mario Lemina each went close for the counter-attacking visitors.

In the absence of 10-goal top scorer Hwang Hee-chan, Neto played as a central striker on the south coast on his first start since October.

Wolves boss Gary O'Neil was impressed with the impact of the Portugal forward but hopes to bolster his striking options during the transfer window.

"We always had that threat," said O'Neil.

"Pedro was good, he probably played a little bit longer than we would have liked ideally.

Maximise

"I just felt there was still a goal in him so tried to push him a little bit more than was ideal but pleased that he got through it.

"Hopefully over the next few days we can do something in the window that can help us in that area.

"Until then we work hard to try and maximise what we have in the room and I felt we did that well today.

"The main thing was we looked like a team, we stuck together and when it got tough in certain situations we looked like we could cope and always had that threat going the other way."

POCHI HAS GOT A BAD HANGOVER

Chelsea boss blames LAST season for struggles since he took Bridge hotseat

MAURICIO Pochettino believes Chelsea's struggles last season are responsible for the apathy observed at Stamford Bridge during home games under his tenure.

The team won just three Premier League games at home in the first 11 months of 2023 under managers Graham Potter, Bruno Salto, Frank Lampard and Pochettino.

Between January and the beginning of December they scored 18 goals in 19 games, though four came in a single, frenetic draw with Manchester City in the final match of that run.

Since then their form in west London has improved markedly. They are unbeaten since losing to Brentford on October 28 and have won four consecutive games, their best run at home in the league since winning six in a row during Lampard's first spell, either side of the 2020 Covid shutdown.

Despite this, the atmosphere around the ground has been noticeably subdued, with recent victories against Fulham, Preston and Sheffield United, in which the team lacked creativity for long periods, particularly quiet.

Chelsea host Middlesbrough on Tuesday needing to win by two goals to overturn a 1-0 first-leg defeat at the Riverside two weeks ago and progress to the Carabao Cup final.

"We're paying now for the effect of the last 18 months," said Pochettino. "We (he and his coaching staff) are here for six months, sometimes for us it's difficult for us to compare.

We're getting better results now, but the disappointment from the fans is coming from last season.

"Now people can give their opinion, it's a bit flat. There's been disappointment for a long period. But how we feel at Stamford Bridge is very good.

"OK, in a few periods in some games, maybe against Nottingham Forest (a 1-0 loss in September) or Brentford the energy was down because the team didn't engage the fans. That's our mistake.

Suffer

"But against Arsenal (a 2-2 draw), City, Brighton (a 3-2 win), Liverpool (1-1), the fans were really good.

"People believed that Fulham would be easy, but Fulham wasn't easy for Liverpool. They beat Arsenal. We played Preston, it's difficult, (their) motivation, the beauty of the cup. The inferior team can match you in different aspects and you can suffer.

"When you feel so disappointed because of last season, you lose too many games at home, the energy is a little bit down."

Pochettino will be without Christopher Nkunku who continues to be plagued by a hip injury, though the manager reiterated the problem is not serious.

Defender Malo Gusto, who has proved an able deputy for sidelined captain Reece James, is the latest addition to an absentee list currently standing at nine names.

Nevertheless, Pochettino is happy with recent progress.

"In December we were one of the best teams in England," he said. "Now (but for) the defeat against Middlesbrough, the results are not too bad, they are good. The problem is the feelings (from last season), because we lose the first leg against Middlesbrough, there was a bit of a strange feeling.

"The results are good and we need to keep doing well and improving."

Pochettino has not acted in the transfer market and may instead give a chance to some of Chelsea's youngsters instead.

Recover

Cesare Casadei and Diego Moreira, who has been brought back after a loan at Benfica was terminated, could have roles to play this season.

"We need to assess them, he said. "They have good potential. I think they're going to be part of our squad. We need to decide whether they will be in the squad every week."

"It's good news because we were suffering too many injuries, so to recover players from loan is important.

"In pre-season (Casadei) did well. We suffered by allowing him to go. In the Premier League maybe he can be involved and be part of the squad."

■ Former Chelsea forward Tommy Baldwin has died aged 78 following a long illness, the club have announced.

Baldwin scored 92 goals in 239 appearances for the Blues and lifted the FA Cup and European Cup Winners' Cup during his time at Stamford Bridge.

Born in Gateshead, Baldwin joined Chelsea from Arsenal in September 1966 and scored his first goal in October away to Manchester City.

He went on to score 17 in his debut season for the club and played in the 1967 FA Cup final, which they lost to Tottenham.

Jota: We can cope without crocked Salah

DIOGO Jota is confident Premier League leaders Liverpool can sustain their quest for silverware in the absence of a host of star names following his brace at Bournemouth.

The Reds set aside being without Mohamed Salah, who is on his way back to Merseyside after being injured at the African Nations Cup.

Salah's muscle injury is "more serious than first thought" and could keep the Liverpool forward out of action for nearly a month, according to his agent.

Manager Jurgen Klopp was also missing defenders Andy Robertson, Trent Alexander-Arnold, Kostas Tsimikas and Joel Matip and midfielders Dominik Szoboszlai, Thiago Alcantara and Wataru Endo at Vitality Stadium.

Jota, whose quickfire strikes on the south coast were sandwiched between Darwin Nunez's double, said: "It's part of the job, we know we have a few injuries, players going away for national teams. It's hard."

"We survived December; January is coming thick and fast from now on and we all need to be ready. I think we have the players and the quality to keep winning games."

"Of course we have world-class players – when we have them it's easier."

"But when we don't have them, that's why we are Liverpool because we have good players and we kind of replace them and try to give our best and share the cost of the games between us and keep going."

MONTH OUT: Mo Salah

While goal-scorers Nunez and Jota grabbed the headlines in Dorset, Alexis Mac Allister played an instrumental role.

The Argentina World Cup winner, who was sent off on his Anfield debut in a 3-1 victory over the Cherries in August – a decision which was later overturned, was singled out for his contribution by his manager.

"Absolutely exceptional performance, I have to say," Klopp said of former Brighton midfielder Mac Allister.

"I'm so happy for us obviously but for him as well."

"He's a really good footballer, let me say it like that. And he did defensively the job and offensively he is super important anyway for us."

MILNER EYES PREM RECORD

JAMES Milner is loving life at Brighton as he chases down Gareth Barry's all-time Premier League appearance record after moving clear of Ryan Giggs in second spot.

Milner made his 633rd appearance in the competition during the Seagulls' goalless draw with Wolves on Monday evening.

The 38-year-old is 20 matches short of equalling the total of his former team-mate Barry but cannot match the record until next season as Albion have only 17 fixtures remaining this term.

Asked about emulating and then surpassing the feat, Milner said: "Yeah, we'll see. Game-wise, hopefully I've got a few more in me."

"With this group of lads I'm playing for now, a fantastic club as well, I'm enjoying my football."

ROCKI GLAD TO BE BACK

CELTIC defender Maik Nawrocki admits it was "hard to accept" his exile from the first team but he is happy his patience and preparation has paid off.

The summer signing suffered a hamstring injury during his third appearance for Celtic and spent about 10 weeks out injured before struggling to get back into the team.

Nawrocki came off the bench against Rangers on December 30 and played a blinder.

He said: "I'm happy I can finally play now. It's been a hard time to get back in the team."

"The only thing I could do was work hard, be prepared for the moment, and in the end it happened. Centre-backs are hard to rotate. If nobody gets injured, it's hard to get the time."

"I knew I had to be prepared and in the end it happened against Rangers."

Bayern buying Newcastle stalwart Kieran for £12m

By JOHN ANTHONY

BAYERN Munich are about to get a real bargain in Kieran Trippier.

The German giants will reportedly pay just £12million for the Newcastle full-back who is keen on the move.

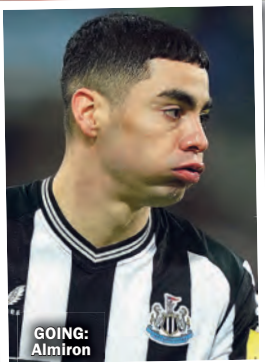

Bayern are beefing up their English players with Harry Kane, Eric Dier and soon Trippier on their books.

The fee seems a real bargain for one of the best defenders in the Premier League.

Newcastle will point to the fact that Trippier is now 33 and his recent performances haven't been their best.

Toon fans have been all over social media fuming about the cut-price deal.

But Trippier doesn't look to be the only player who could be leaving St James's Park before the window closes at the end of next week. Miguel Almiron is attracting attention from Saudi Arabia with an amazing fee of £50m being mentioned to take the forward to the Middle East.

GOING:
Almiron

And Callum Wilson is another prominent Newcastle player being linked with an exit.

AC Milan are keen to take the England striker on loan until the end of the season with a permanent deal also being mooted.

The Toon have already rejected advances from Atletico Madrid for Wilson with boss Eddie Howe desperate to keep him.

Wilson has spent much of the season on the sidelines with a run of injuries but is still seen as an important part of the Toon squad. He has 18 months left on his contract.
